A stunning residence with lush landscaping, a tropical pool setting, privacy, rustic trees, and a partial view of the 18th hole create the ambiance of resort living in your own backyard. In the elegant and upscale neighborhood of Cape Haze Windward with meandering charming streets lined with beautiful homes, surrounded by golf course vistas and expansive Coral Creek waterway. Less than two miles from the Intracoastal Waterway and Gulf waters. Very close to shopping, beaches, fishing and the beautiful Boca Grande causeway. This home is a much more recent build than many in the neighborhood. An aura of eloquence, elegance and style pervade the brilliant, exceptionally open floor plan. Right from the front door enjoy welcoming views of the outdoor living and tropical scenery. Spacious living and family rooms with a large kitchen that opens up to both, this home includes several sets of sliding glass doors that take you to its new patio deck and inviting heated pool. The large master bedroom includes two separate walk-in closets, full ensuite and French doors entry to relax in the screen-enclosed nool area. I live in the tronics with beauty and charm, and neace of mind of a solidly built home. Around the corner from old
